Councillor resigns over 'brick wall'

FORMER Seaton Mayor Tony Woodman has resigned from the town council, saying he got a sore head from banging it against a brick wall.

He announced his shock resignation on Thursday, June 2nd, claiming some town councillors are "obsessed" with Seaton Jurassic and that the ongoing regeneration is splitting the town into two parts.

Mr Woodman was Mayor of Seaton for a year but did not seek a second term last month.

He has now left the town council altogether, and told Pulman's View: "I felt I had no choice but to resign from the town council for various reasons. You can only bang your head against a brick wall so many times before it starts to hurt.

"I believe we are seeing what has happened in some other towns taking shape here in Seaton.

"The so-called regeneration is creating an old Seaton in the town centre and a new Seaton at the Underfleet.

"It seems the emphasis is very much on the new Seaton and the obsession with Seaton Jurassic of some town councillors is plain to see. It's all they talk about.

Final straw

"The final straw for me was the resignation of our town clerk, Chris Drake, who I feel was left with no choice but to move on.

"The behaviour of certain councillors in recent months towards the clerk was bad to say the least and was a major reason why I decided not to seek a second year as chairman.

"A few years ago I was verbally attacked in council by the then mayor and a current serving councillor for questioning why Seaton had had so many town clerks in recent years.

"Yet here we are again needing to find another one.

I think this speaks volumes. It seems certain councillors think they rule the council and always know better than a trained professional, often questioning what they are told.

"I believe we are losing a very good town clerk who made some great improvements to the running of the council.

"But Seaton's loss is clearly someone else's gain. I wish Chris well in his new post. It will be interesting to see how long the next clerk lasts."

Pulman's View sought comment from Mr Drake, who had not replied at the time of going to press.

Before becoming mayor, Mr Woodman was opposed to the location of the Jurassic Centre, saying it would not benefit the town centre.

After his resignation from the town council, he said: "Whether the promised benefits to the town centre ever materialise remains to be seen.

"Seaton Jurassic has been open for many weeks and apparently has welcomed thousands of visitors but is that large visitor number turning into increased business for town centre traders?

"The answer, from some I have spoken to, is quite simply 'no'.

"The development on the former Grove site might help bring people across the road but only time will tell."

Mr Woodman didn't name names but accused some councillors, past and present, of holding closed talk-

AXMINSTER Town to benefit from regeneration scheme

AXMINSTER is next in line to reap the regeneration success enjoyed by Seaton and Exmouth, according to East Devon Conservatives.

In a statement headlined "Putting the zing into revitalizing Axminster!" the Conservative Group in control of East Devon District Council (EDDC) said it is pressing ahead with a Regeneration Programme Board (RPB) for Axminster.

Apart from EDDC members, RPBs include delegates from county and town councils, local groups, and representatives from business interests.

From the editor's chair Former mayor: 'I've had enough!'

AS predicted in last week's Pulman's View, Seaton Town Council has been hit by yet another big-name resignation.

Former mayor Tony Woodman threw in the towel last week, frustrated by a number of issues, claiming the town is being split into two by the obsession with the regeneration initiatives, especially the recently opened Jurassic centre.

Mr Woodman, labelled by this column as "a rebel councillor" before he became mayor, much to his amusement, was never a supporter of Seaton Jurassic.

A trader at the time, he maintained the £4 million project being sited on The Underfleet would be of no benefit to the town centre because visitors would not walk into the shopping area.

He now claims there is proof of this, despite the apparent success of the footfall with many thousands having passed through its doors.

After announcing that he would not be seeking a second year as mayor, as is the norm, Mr Woodman told me he felt slightly embarrassed at the centre's opening ceremony, although he conceded it was a great day for Seaton with Princess Anne in attendance.

In announcing his resignation from the council, Mr Woodman told our reporter: "You can only bang your head against a wall so many times!"

He is also upset over the resignation of muchadmired town clerk Chris Drake, who has accepted a position with another authority.

Although Mr Drake is remaining tight lipped over why he has decided to move on, Mr Woodman says the town clerk had no choice as he was treated badly by a number of councillors. He says this was a major reason why he decided not to remain as the council chairman for a second year.

After getting on an even keel following a number of years in which Seaton council seemed to lurch from one controversy to another, it's unfortunate that once again the town should find itself in this position.

Clearly, new mayor Marcus Hartnell has a difficult few weeks ahead of him.

■ THIS weekend, in town and village throughout Pulman's Country, the people of East Devon and South Somerset will be raising a glass or two to Her Majesty The Queen on the occasion of her 90th birthday.

Numerous events have been organised throughout the area to celebrate this wonderful achievement.

Even those who are not rabid royalists will concede, I am sure, that our longest reigning monarch deserves a tipple or two herself.

Many congratulations, Ma'am!

PHILIP EVANS

SEATON Councillor resigns over 'brick wall'

FORMER Seaton Mayor Tony Woodman has resigned from the town council, saying he got a sore head from banging it against a brick wall.

He announced his shock resignation on Thursday, June 2nd, claiming some town councillors are "obsessed" with Seaton Jurassic and that the on-going regeneration is splitting the town into two.

He has now left the town council altogether, and told Pulman's View: "The so-called regeneration is creating an old Seaton in the town centre and a new Seaton at the Underfleet."

Seaton mayor Marcus Hartnell confirmed the resignation, but did not comment as such.

ILMINSTER Plans to strengthen Fairtrade concept

ILMINSTER Fairtrade Group has revealed a number of initiatives to strengthen the concept in and around the town.

The announcement was made during the group's annual meeting and open evening.

Plans to install five Fairtrade Town signs on the entrance roads to the town were unveiled, along with proposals to lead an ambitious expansion of the local Fairtrade movement to surrounding towns and villages across South Somerset.

OTTERY ST MARY Slade Farm homes appeal denied

AN application for 52 homes at Slade Farm has had its appeal turned down, much to the delight of local residents and the town council.

Blue Cedar Homes' development has been one of the most divisive applications over recent years with the Ottery public packing town and district planning meetings to voice their disapproval of the plans.

Cllr Roger Giles praised the decision and the town's people for their hard work.

"Many people will be very pleased, and also relieved, at the decision. I would like to offer my congratulations and thanks to the many local people who took the time to oppose this damaging planning application."

CHARD Schoolboy hailed a hero after finding missing man

A LOCAL schoolboy is being hailed a hero after finding missing Chard man Vasco Manuel Macedo.

Police announced on the night of Thursday, June 2nd that Vasco, 38, who had been missing for a week, had been found safe and well.

It has since emerged that seven-year-old Connor MacDonald found Vasco - who has learning difficulties - sleeping rough in a hide-away in a hedge area of Stringfellow Park.

The police's concerns were heightened when they said that, although Vasco was 38, the investigation was more akin to that of a "missing child" because he had the mind of a 13-year-old, could not speak English and would be very afraid.

COLYTON Colyton 'brighter' with new banners

COLYTON has been brightened up with a display of heraldic banners which depict the ancient town's rich history.

The display is an initiative of the Promote Colyton group, which last year staged the successful Monmouth Rebellion day.

The banners were all hand-painted by volunteers, with fabric donated by Tish Wells of Needlesharp and brackets by Mike Rowland Wheelwright & Coachbuilders.

The colourful banners were revealed last week and will remain on display around the town all summer.

SIDMOUTH Conservation group objects to Knowle development plans

CONSERVATION group SAVE Britain's Heritage has submitted its objection to PegasusLife's plan for 115 apartments at the Knowle site in Sidmouth, saying the loss of the building and surrounding area is a 'devastating blow to the history and character of Sidmouth.'

The national organisation, which has been described as the most influential conservation group to have been established in the last 100 years, has written to East Devon District Council's planning department objecting to the plan to demolish the 19th century council offices and building a new housing complex on the site.

The letter from SAVE reads: "Despite declining to list The Knowle in 2012, [government body] Historic England acknowledged that both the house and the park are of 'clear local interest' and are 'evidently highly valued by the local community.'"

Meanwhile the Save Our Sidmouth campaign group has formally submitted their views to EDDC over the planning application for the Knowle site. SOS laid out their objection in ten points including appearance, changes from the Local Plan and parking.

HONITON Business move makes way for starter homes

HONITON has been chosen for a national pilot scheme to build high quality starter homes available for local residents.

Initial suggestions being put forward by the Homes and Communities Agency (HCA) include around 30 two-bedroom starter homes with gardens and car parking at the 1.6-acre town centre site in Honiton. The scheme has only been possible after local firm Halse of Honiton announced they were relocating to purpose-built premises at Daisy Mount, near Exeter.

The Mayor of Honiton, Councillor Caroline Kolek, said: "Low cost housing is desperately needed for first time buyers in Honiton. I fully support the development of brownfield sites."

ing shops.

He said: "Signage around the town is another matter that has frustrated me for a long time.

"It has been talked about for years and when things started to move all some town councillors did was form yet another working party.

"We are still waiting for the signs to direct visitors around the town.

"I don't think I have ever come across a council so keen on setting up working parties.

"I've always believed the place to discuss things is in public in the council chamber.

"The town centre pedestrianisation issue is one I have been calling for action on for years, but all there has been is empty promises and a lack of enthusiasm by some town councillors to do anything about it.

"It is also obvious that Seaton can expect very little from the district council in the near future.

"Having spent millions on the Jurassic Centre the council has made it clear that its efforts will now be focused elsewhere.

"We will have to really fight for what we need from now on."

When declaring he would not seek a second term as mayor, he said he would be better positioned to represent the people of Seaton from the backbenches on the town council.

But that won't be the case following his resignation.

Mr Woodman explained: "Resigning was not an easy decision to make and I thought long and hard about it.

"There will be those who will say I should have stayed and fought from inside.

"I have tried but I don't believe in wasting my time. I will, however, continue to fight for what I believe.

"I don't need the title of councillor to do that.

"To anyone who thinks I have let them down by resigning I apologise but I didn't see any alternative.

"I've always believed that if you stop enjoying something then it's time to get out.

"Being mayor of this wonderful town last year was a great honour and one I thoroughly enjoyed but being chairman of the council is another kettle of fish completely and not one I felt I could even consider for a second time.

"Some councillors seem to think they can do just what they want and I suspect will continue to do so."

Mr Woodman, who used to be a town centre trader, hinted he may set up a pressure group, saying: "I now believe my energies will be better used outside the council.

"The town's traders need support and I think a pressure group of traders and residents working together could be the way forward to fight for what is needed.

"At least, with a pressure group their voice would be heard and if it's loud enough it cannot be ignored.

"We need to safeguard our town centre and those working in it.

"A united group can challenge Devon County Council, the district council and the town council. After all, we are the ratepayers.

"It's time for the town to unite. Let's work together."

Seaton mayor Marcus Hartnell confirmed the resignation, but did not comment as such.

Colyton tradesmen on 1,000 mile bike challenge

FOUR Colyton tradesmen set off on a sponsored cycle ride from John O'Groats in the far north east of Scotland back south to Land's End in Cornwall – a journey just short of 1,000 miles – on May 30th.

Drainage engineer Dave Selley, electrician Matt Craker, builder Doug Board, and plumber Ian 'Pipes' Woodhall are aiming to cover 70 to 80 miles a day for 13 days, and hope to arrive at Land's End mid-morning on Sunday, June 12th.

They are raising funds for FORCE, a local cancer charity based in Exeter at the RD&E Hospital.

The 'boys', with a combined age of well in excess of 200 years, have been training hard on the road and have done some charity rides but none of them have embarked on anything like this before.

Inspired by friends who completed the ride last year, whilst talking in a pub one night these unlikely cyclists decided it would be a good idea to take on the challenge.

At this time they had not realised how much was involved – arranging time off work, transport and accommodation – and they're very grateful to their wives and friends for helping plan the whole thing and providing the back-up needed.

They are also indebted to local businesses for their help with transport (they have been lent a van), signwriting, T-shirts and printing, as well as bike servicing, fuel and sponsorship.

Dave Selley from the team explained that they set off to do this as a personal challenge but felt that it was an opportunity to raise some money for a good cause.

He said: "When Nigel Broom, a neighbour and good friend, was diagnosed with cancer it shocked all of us, and FORCE had been very helpful to him and his family.

"Wanting to find out more, we talked to others who have suffered from cancer and to the families who have lost a loved one – all said the same: FORCE had helped them. So we decided this was to be our charity of choice.

"Ever since we have had offers of support from so many people it's staggering!"

As part of their fundraising efforts, the team has already run a quiz evening at The Kingfisher Inn in Colyton, raising more than £400, and on route they will be holding another fundraising evening with shanty group The Bencoolen Wreckers at The Bencoolen Arms, near Bude, on June 9th at 7.30pm, as well as an appearance at the Royal Cornwall Show on June 10th.

"We are hoping as many people as possible will join us with their bikes to do the last leg – 19 miles starting from Hayle railway station car park at 10am on June 12th, or join us at Land's End mid-morning," added Dave.

An incorrect version of this article was published in last week's edition for which we apologise

District council is 24/7

EAST Devon District Council says it is open around-the-clock and continues to increase on-line transaction options for residents and businesses.

Council leader Paul Diviani told EDDC's annual meeting that more than 570,000 people visited the council's eastdevon.gov.uk website last year – and in the first four months of this year, the council had recorded 240,000 visitors.

He told councillors: "We should never underestimate the power of our website as more and more people are interacting with us through the web, and via social media with Twitter and Facebook being the most popular platforms.

"Our website is available 24/7 for business transactions so our residents and businesses can use it at their own convenience any time of the day or night."

In his review of 2015/16, Councillor Diviani highlighted the recently opened £4million Seaton Jurassic visitor attraction where EDDC has invested £1.9million and is the main funder.

He also praised the recent cardboard and mixed plastics recycling trials involving almost 1,400 households.

The trials have proved so successful that the extended service will be rolled out district-wide next year as part of the council's new waste and recycling contract.

Councillors re-elected Councillor Stuart Hughes as chairman of the council and Councillor Helen Parr as deputy chairman.

Councillors Diviani and Hughes both paid tribute to Councillor Alison Greenhalgh, who died suddenly earlier in May and the council held a minute's silence in her memory.

Summer music comes to arts cafe

AXMINSTER Arts Café Music in the Garden got off to a flying start with local artist and musician Karl Taylor kicking off proceedings, followed by an afternoon of Americana by Alan West, Steve Black and Adam Sweet.

Axminster Arts director Jenny Fells said: "More than 100 people attended this gig, which was held in the beautiful courtyard garden at the Old Courthouse.

"There was food available from the arts café and Axminster Arts ran a licensed bar.

"This very successful event will be followed by free, live

■ OPENER: Karl Taylor was first to entertain on May 28th music events each Saturday from 11am-1pm from June until September inclusive."

The arts café is open until 4pm Monday-Saturday and all surplus profits generated by are used to support the arts in Axminster and the surrounding area.

■ THE Bishop of Crediton, the Rt Revd. Dame Sarah Mullally, was invited to take a service in The Minster Church of St Mary the Virgin in Axminster on May 29th.

She was welcomed by Axe Valley Mission Community and, assisted by members of the team clergy, Bishop Sarah presided at a joint service of Holy Communion.

More than 130 worshippers from around the team of six churches attended, and the service was supported and enhanced by an augmented choir from Axminster Choral Society led by Peter Parshall, Judy Martin and organist Peter Lea-Cox.

Further tributes are paid to Francis

THE trustees of Axminster Health & Wellbeing Centre have paid tributes to Francis White MBE.

As reported last week, Frances, who lived in Axminster died at the age of 68.

A statement issued by trustees of the centre said: "Frances White started volunteering at the centre four years ago.

"She managed our books, worked very hard in our food bank making, sure that anyone who came in for food was treated with respect and kindness.

"She donated a lot of her spare time helping us to redecorate the centre and doing various other things.

"She was often there working in the background peacefully and with great humility and kindness.

"She was quiet and unassuming and had a dry quirky sense of humour.

"Her support, kindness willingness to help others will be greatly missed.

"We found her to be an inspiration with her ability to be non-judgmental, kind to people and animals and all the work she has done throughout her life in supporting others without expecting anything in return.

"She was surprised to receive an MBE and she totally deserved it."

Lions back from the brink

AXMINSTER & District Lions Club is off the critical list.

In January this year, club president Jackie Swarbrick-Silver said the 47-year-old club would fold unless new members were found urgently.

Four months later she reported: "We gained three new members, due directly to the appeal put out

Potential members are asked to contact Jackie by emailing mauvemare@aol.com or phoning 07885 320704.

Concert for the Queen

AXMINSTER and District Choral Society will join the town's festivities in honour of the Queen's 90th birthday by presenting an entertaining programme of music in The Minster Church on Saturday, June 11th.

The programme will feature some of the queen's favourite songs and TV programmes, recognition of her wartime service and items illustrating her love of Scotland.

Her love of horses and horse racing will be represented by the Ascot Gavotte from My Fair Lady and her family connection with the Royal Navy will be reflected in pieces from HMS Pinafore.

There will be opportunities to sing along with wartime songs and to enjoy the uplifting solemnity of Handel's Zadok the Priest and the famous Hallelujah chorus from the Messiah, sung by a full choir of some 60 voices under the direction of Peter Parshall.

The performance will start at 7.30pm. Tickets are £10 from Archway Bookshop in Axminster or on 01297 33576.

'Hospital needs your support'

Call for public to attend Friends AGM

ATTENDING an annual general meeting would help keep the profile of Axminster Hospital high, according to its league of friends.

Axminster Hospital League of Friends (LoF) will hold its annual meeting in the guildhall on Friday,

Wallet stolen from unlocked house

A WALLET was stolen during the burglary of a house in the Sector Lane area of Axminster on Tuesday May 31st.

The burglary happened at some point between 8.50am and 9.20am.

A police spokesperson said: "A wallet was stolen from the living room after entry was gained by either an unlocked front or rear door. "The wallet is a black leather man's wallet and had various identity and bank cards in."

"The bank cards were immediately cancelled by the owner.

"Police are asking anyone who finds any bank cards or identity cards, or any wallets in the area, to phone police on 101 to arrange police to collect them for consideration of gathering forensic evidence from them."

"Please quote police log 479 31/05/16."

Police would also like to remind all residents to keep doors and windows secure – even when inside the house, and to report any suspicious behaviour to them.

June 17th, starting at 6.30pm.

Dr Vaughan Pearce will be the guest speaker and will give an address called Parkinson's Disease – What has changed in the last 45 years.

League of Friends member Ann Veit said: "If we want to keep our hospital viable, we must do all in our power to keep it vibrant."

"Currently we are in a period of interregnum due to the change of management from North Devon Healthcare NHS Trust to Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust.

"No major changes are taking place at the moment and probably won't until the RD&E is established with well thought-out plans put in place."

"However, we must keep the profile of Axminster Hospital high in the eyes of the powers that be."

"Your Hospital needs your support and the LoF AGM is a way for you to show that support for the hospital and the league."

"You do not have to be a member to attend and I am sure you will find the event interesting, informative and worthwhile."

In addition to the business affairs of the LoF and a report by LoF chairman Dr Phil Taylor, Dr Vaughan Pearce, who himself holds clinics at Axminster Hospital, will give an address.

Ann concluded: "Following the success of the Parkinson's Awareness Day recently held at Axminster Hospital, this talk should be of great interest to the community."

"We look forward to seeing you on June 17th."

New manager for power tools

by Anders Larsson
anders@viewnews.co.uk

THE new Axminster Tools and Machinery shop manager in Axminster is looking forward to attract the next generation of customers.

Matthew Youngs was given responsibility for the store in April after an eagerly anticipated move to the town from the company's Warrington shop.

He said: "When the opportunity came up to make a career move down to Devon I was delighted."

"I've always loved this part of the country and am enjoying getting to know the area."

"This particular store has a long-established and loyal customer base with some travelling hundreds of miles to visit us."

"In fact, I've discovered that the Axminster store attracts customers from as far away as Brazil, Thailand and Kenya."

"They tell us there's nothing quite like it in their countries."

Established in 1972, Axminster Tools and Machinery has grown steadily and now operates eight stores in the UK and enjoys a thriving online trade.

■ HANDS-ON: Matthew Youngs

Matthew joined the company five years ago and was previously deputy manager of the Warrington store.

He is a hands-on man with a furniture design degree on his CV.

He has holidayed regularly in Devon and has been to Axminster before for work, so is not totally new to the town and its surroundings.

Matthew said that the Axminster store has exciting plans to encourage more customers into the store – with more demonstrations and events to appeal to novice and expert alike.

He explained: "We are introducing introduce free Turning Tuesdays, open to anyone who would like to start a new hobby and is interested in woodturning."

"We are very keen to attract younger woodworking hopefuls and are looking at ways in which we can broaden the appeal of the store to our next generation of customers."

Peco to celebrate 70th anniversary

INTERNATIONALLY renowned model railway company Peco is planning a special celebration to mark its 70th anniversary this month.

The Beer-based business, which is not only one of East Devon's oldest employers but one of its biggest, will be taking its workers on a day out to the West Somerset Railway where a locomotive owned by the Colas Rail Freight Company will be named in its honour.

The ceremony will take place on Saturday (June 11th) with Peco chairman Michael Pritchard and managing director Ben Arnold, his nephew, joining staff at Bishops Lydeard for the trip on Britain's longest heritage railway to Minehead, where there will be a reception and the naming ceremony of the new Peco locomotive.

by Kevin Fahey

Mr Pritchard said: "Peco is now coming into its third generation (of family ownership) and that is something to be very proud of. We are continuing to invest in different things for the Peco group of companies, not just in what the public might see but also in our manufacturing process.

"We are the largest manufacturer of model railway track in the world and no other firm makes such a huge variety as us."

It was Michael's father Sydney Pritchard, who had a lifelong interest in model railways and engineering, who founded the company in 1946 with its initial operation in Branscombe.

It then moved its headquarters to Seaton and when the town council proved reluctant to accommodate Sydney's plans to establish a bigger operation he opted to move to Beer.

"Axminster District Council owned the land and originally it was ear-marked for an old folks' home but being up the hill that wasn't very practical," added Michael.

"My father was offered the land but initially thought there was no way he could build on the side of a hill but he then got a quote of £500 from Parsons earth movers in Axminster to level the ground and he went with that."

As well as developing into a global leader in the model railway market producing 3,000 products and exporting to 33 countries, Peco also publishes two respected specialist magazines – Railway Modeller and Continental Modeller – and has developed the popular tourist attraction of Pecorama incorporating the magnificent gardens and the Beer Heights Light Railway.

The company now employs 130 full-time workers, which swells in the busy summer season, and Michael ushered in the next generation of the Pritchard family when he handed the day-to-day reins to nephew Ben last year while his daughter also works in the company.

"We have always valued our workforce very highly and I think many of them will remember the 50th anniversary trip to the West Somerset Railway very fondly, so that is why we decided to do something on a similar basis," said Ben.

Hopefully in another 30 years that will be the setting of their centenary celebrations.

Beer councillor is all at sea

GEOFF Pook sent his apologies for missing the latest meeting of Beer Parish Council – because he is sailing around the British Isles!

Geoff, who also represents Beer and Branscombe on East Devon District Council, has taken time off with local artist and fellow sailor Eddie Burrows on an epic journey that began from Axmouth on May 14th and with fair winds and following seas will bring them home to Beer during Regatta Week in August.

"The idea was to get back on Regatta Day but there is no way we can guarantee that so we are just aiming to be back at Axmouth harbour some time in August," said Geoff.

"We were stuck in the Scillies for five days because of strong winds and we have also ended up going up the east coast of Ireland rather than the west because of the winds, so it is not all going to plan.

"But so far the journey has been very relaxing and therapeutic."

Both men are experienced sailors with Geoff having sailed across the Atlantic and Eddie also boasting extensive knowledge from many hours spent on the sea.

They are tackling the challenge in a Moody

Eclipse 33 Sander which has had new sails, rigging and an engine but the journey is not just all fun and enjoyment.

"I am keeping in touch with council business via email when we are berthed overnight and I can get wi-fi while Eddie is also doing a lot of painting," added Geoff.

The pair are also recording their progress on their blog Two Old Men in A Boat – <https://twooldmeninaboat.wordpress.com>

Museum reopens

SEATON Museum is up and running for the new summer season.

The traditional opening event for invited guests was held on May 26th, with long-serving Colyton councillor Colin Pady being the guest of honour.

Mr Pady, who was present at the first meeting to discuss setting up a museum in Seaton 30 years ago, paid tribute to everyone who had supported the facility over the

A number of them – Lyn Marshall, Mavis Motson and Carol Gosling – were presented with floral bouquets.

The museum is currently displaying a small, topical exhibition on the Battle of Jutland.

The village of Beer lost four, possibly five, men in the battle – Seaman Norman George Franklin, Able Seaman Walter Tom Abbott, Able Seaman William Robert Orley and Stoker 1st Class William John Mutter.

Seaton Museum curator Ted Gosling said it is possible that a fifth Beer resident was lost, but the records available differ.

He added: "The small village of Beer lost four, possibly five, men in one day.

"Imagine what the village must have felt the next day."

■ SAY IT WITH FLOWERS: Museum talents received bouquets, pictured alongside Seaton Mayor Marcus Hartnell, curator Ted Gosling, assistant curator Helen Newbury-Arshad and Colin Pady

■ THE East Devon AONB Partnership is promoting its Acland Award for 2016 – with this year's theme being food and drink.

Last year's winner, David Satterley of Lower Bruckland Nature Reserve, pictured, is looking forward to the new season at his expanded nature reserve and visitor café.

Lower Bruckland won the coveted 2015 Acland Award for the diverse wildlife site and environmentally inspired artwork that has been created at the reserve.

David's enthusiasm and hard work has generated somewhere really special for the enjoyment of the natural environment and the wildlife it encourages. It's created the opportunity for people to get close to nature in a relaxing and welcoming environment.

Chris Woodruff, AONB manager, said: "David was a worthy winner of the Acland Award last year and we hope to help celebrate an equally worthwhile winner this year.

"Our theme for 2016 is food and drink, and we are keen to receive applications or nominations for food and drink produced in the AONB where the owners have also made efforts to promote its connection to the landscape."

Anyone interested in applying for the Acland Award should visit the AONB website a www.eastdevonaonb.org.uk or contact the AONB team on 01404 46663.

The deadline for applications is July 31st and the award will be presented at the AONB Annual Forum on September 28th.

A new parish for West Hill?

■ WE are writing to correct some erroneous assertions made in a letter you published last week and to provide some balance and sensibility to your coverage about the possibility of a separate West Hill parish council.

West Hill councillor and independence activist Mr Christopher Hall has gone too far: he has shot his bolt.

He asserts that the proposed boundary suggested in EDDC's current public consultation was the result of secret lobbying by people in Ottery Town. Nothing could be further from the truth. Mark Williams, Chief Executive of EDDC, has made it absolutely clear that the suggested boundary was solely based on an assessment made with particular reference to 'community identity' criteria. In other words, the Kings School playing fields and other land closest to the Town and the River Otter has no close identification with West Hill. We entirely see the sense of that decision.

As to Mr Hall's suggestions that a historic boundary can never be moved, that is clearly ludicrous: we live in today, we think of our future and Mr Hall needs to recognise the obvious. It is equally ludicrous for Mr Hall to suggest that houses will be built to the west of the Town if the land remains part of the current Parish – but that would not happen if that land was passed to West Hill. EDDC's local plan makes clear that Ottery has all the new homes it needs up to 2031: and to argue that passing the land to West Hill will somehow prevent any future development is quite off the wall.

EDDC's public consultation on the suggested boundary is still open for responses. We invite local residents to make their views known to EDDC. Let logic and the views of sensible people prevail.

■ AS a ward member for Sidmouth-Sidford, I would like to thank everyone who has taken the time to write in about the Sidford development application (16/0669/MOUT). There is still time to make your comments on this providing you submit them by close of play on June 7th.

EU: stay or leave?

■ IN last week's Pulman's letters Derek Sturch stated in his letter: "It has taken David Cameron to show what can be achieved if we are prepared to get our hands dirty and fight for our demands. Perhaps if we vote to stay in, a lesson has been learnt".

Really? What has David Cameron actually achieved in his EU negotiations besides telling everybody what a wonderful job he has done for Britain? I doubt if he has ever got his hands dirty in his life. It is all just empty rhetoric and spin. Some might say very similar to East Devon District Council.

What David Cameron and George Osborne are trying to achieve in their comments about 'Brexit' is to try and scare the living daylights out of people. Such is the level of fear spreading I fully expect them to say next that if we leave the EU frogs will fall out of the sky and plagues will spread across the land. The EU political elite and their cronies which include large corporations, the superrich, the powerful and influential all just want to continue shoving their noses in the trough. Do not be fooled by these people who use public manipulation as their weapon of choice. It is just the same centuries old story of greed, power, money, lies and empire building to retain the status quo for the privileged at the expense of the rest of us.

RICHARD BENFORD,
Colyton

■ A POINT that no-one seems to mention is that we British are historically of European stock. Our island has been invaded by Scandinavians (Vikings), Germans (Saxons), Italians (Romans) and the French (Normans) with very many settling here and helping to form the British race.

We are a small island on the edge of a united Europe that will have no power to influence world affairs if it tries to stand alone. It is an illusion to think we are living in the days of the British Empire. The European Union on the other hand can have a great influence on the state of the world, a union in which we are currently an influential part. So what are our

Honiton Senior Voice: People's Parliament

■ TALKING to people in Honiton and Axminster about the EU referendum in Honiton I learned that some people have still not registered to vote – they have until June 7th.

I also learned that many people do not have the facts about the EU; sadly there is a great deal of prejudice.

A number of older people told me they would prefer that only younger people were allowed to vote. One lady said "It is their future more than ours that will be affected so they should decide it"; in fact, older people are more likely to vote.

Honiton Senior Voice will hold a 'People's Parliament' on the EU referendum on Friday, June 17th from 2pm in the Methodist Hall. There will be speakers for both the Remain and Leave campaigns and information to help voters decide. We will extend the debate until 6pm to allow younger people and others to come along. Crowds line the streets for popular tractor run

A HUGE crowd turned out to cheer on hundreds of tractors as they set off on the annual Colyton Vintage Tractor Run on Bank Holiday Monday.

The run started at the Peace Memorial Playing Field in Colyton, where crowds lined the street to watch tractors of all shapes and sizes set off, many pulling trailers full of family, friends and even the odd dog!

The convoy of tractors drove into Seaton and along the seafront, around the East Devon countryside and finished at Branscombe Village Hall where refreshments were enjoyed.

The event was this year sponsored by CRW Accountants and raised funds for the Devon Freewheelers and Devon Air Ambulance. It was not known at the time of going to press how much was raised.

Queen's 90th celebrations at Axmouth Church

AXMOUTH Church members will be celebrating the Queen's birthday this coming weekend with two special events.

On Saturday afternoon, teas will be served in the church from 2.30 until 5.30 p.m. An invitation is extended for all to join them for tea and admire the special floral arrangements.

On Sunday, the celebrations continue when the morning service will include special prayers, music from the Choir and a talk given by the Vicar, Rev'd Kate Woolven. Following the service, prosecco and birthday cake will be on hand to toast Her Majesty. All are welcome to celebrate and give thanks for Her Majesty's long and fruitful life.

Bride and groom, combined age 163

KILMINGTON: Gatecrashing a church housewarming led to love and a wedding between David Heming and Jenny Carter, combined age 163 years, in Kilminster the following year.

Pastor Darrell Holmes of Kilminster Baptist Church explained: "In January 2015 a housewarming event was held at the newly-built facility for The Baptist Church Kilminster, called The Beacon.

"It was really meant to be for the church congregation only, to be followed a week later by an event open to the whole community.

"But one welcome intruder was David Heming, who came along as a friend of the congregation who attended church elsewhere.

"However, his unexpected visit led to an encounter with Jenny Carter.

"David was a widower who had some years earlier cared for his wife, who was seriously ill for the last ten years of her life.

"He was a widely-admired retired professional woodwind and brass musician.

"Jenny had worked for many years for WEC, a Christian mission organisation, and had never been married, was long retired and wasn't even looking for love. "Nevertheless, something special happened at that housewarming and the two of them began a journey into marriage."

The wedding was held in May, celebrated by a packed congregation at The Beacon.

Pastor Holmes said: "Given that their combined age was 163, it was a very special occasion but not one that could have been foreseen.

"As the 150 guests looked on at the wedding ceremony, they were reminded of the surprises that life can bring, and the delightful way in which God had brought this couple together."

"Maybe it was that account of unexpected joy that caused a spontaneous standing ovation as they were pronounced to be husband and wife."

School garden fund

SHUTE Community Primary School aims to raise a total of £25,000 over the next year to re-landscape their outside spaces, making them more appropriate for outdoor learning, recreation and play.

The project will involve constructing a tiered wooden seating area for the outdoor stage, which will benefit the wider community through the possibility of open air theatre productions by the school and others.

It is also intended to remove overhanging tree limbs in the gardens, put in low maintenance borders with year round colour, new raised beds and a small polytunnel to allow year round planting.

As part of the project the Holt (ages 3-5) outdoor classroom will be improved with a mud garden, a weather proof curtain for the covered area, plus another outdoor classroom at the back of the school with a better surface, planters, and diverse wildlife-friendly plants.

Gardening and outdoor learning are part of the curriculum at the school, which also offers a weekly after school gardening club to all pupils.

The project, to be carried out by a local firm, has already attracted funds from Devon Council Locality Budget and donations from the community.

ACTIVE LIFESTYLES: Pupils would like to make the most of outdoor spaces

New head Clare Rinaldi said: "We are absolutely delighted with the support we have so far been given by the local community.

"The re-design of the outside spaces will make a dramatic difference for pupils, staff and the community alike."

Donations can be made via the following link: <https://app.flendr.com/Campaign/ViewFund/FRF001873> or by a cheque payable to 'DCC County Fund Account' and sent to Ange Haysom at the school.

Busy few months for preschoolers

STOCKLAND AND YARCOMBE pre-schoolers recently visited new lambs at a nearby farm and also completed a sponsored beach walk for Sport Relief at Seaton beach, raising £124.50.

The pre-school has enlisted the help of professional sports coach Dan Murnane to implement the Leap Ahead scheme every Wednesday. The programme develops eye-hand co-ordination, large muscle movement, balance and rhythm. It is hoped that the scheme will have huge benefits for the children's development and it aims to encourage participation in sport from a young age.

The children will focus on the theme of different occupations this term, with a visit from local police officers and a nurse as well as another trip to a farm.

Sarah Tennant, Administration Support Manager at the pre-school said: "As a registered charity the volunteers who form our Committee are always looking for ways to raise money and we would like to appeal to anyone who has any unwanted clothes, shoes or handbags to donate these to pre-school for a Bags 2 School fundraising event which will be held in July. Special bags can be collected from the pre-school at Stockland Victory Hall from the June 6th (or alternatively you can fill a bin bag) and the bags will need to be brought back to pre-school on or before Friday, July 1st when they will be collected. The pre-school will be given money based on the weight of the bags collected so please have a look in your wardrobes and drawers and see if you can help us out."

Little Ones Childcare at Honiton

LITTLE Ones Childcare at Honiton has received the highest praise possible from Ofsted inspectors following a recent inspection. They have been rated as OUTSTANDING!

Katie Porter, owner of Little Ones Childcare who has 5 nurseries in Exeter and Bovey Tracey as well as here in Honiton, is over the moon at being graded "outstanding" by Ofsted, as very few childcare providers are given the rating, the best possible from the education watchdog.

"To say I am thrilled would be the understatement of the year. The team work so very hard each and every day and to have their dedication rewarded like this, to be awarded an OUTSTANDING is amazing and we are all so very proud. Our nursery is very small, we only take 33 children per day so we can build up really strong relationships with not only the children but their families which helps us in providing the very best care and education."

Little Ones Childcare, in St Paul's Road, Honiton cares for children from birth to five years. After the inspection, Ofsted inspectors wrote a glowing report, which praised standards of care, education.

Comments included

- "All children make excellent progress in their learning"
- "Children of all ages are extremely confident, with high self esteem."
- "Staff have very strong relationships with parents and involve them in their children's learning from the start"
- "The provider is extremely committed to promoting high quality outcomes for children"
- "Staff plan highly interesting and exciting activities for children, who are very keen and eager to join in."
- "Staff use their excellent knowledge of each child to ensure activities are engaging and age-appropriate."
- "Children are very happy and extremely well behaved."
- "All children, including those who need extra help, receive excellent support in preparation for their next stage in learning, including going to school."

CONTINUING a tradition that began in 1231, Petherton Folk Fest provides a full day of free entertainment for adults and children. The event is a real treat for lovers of Folk dance – including Morris, clog and Appalachian – and music ranging from Folk and Blues to World and Acoustic. And, for children, this year's programme offers more entertainment than ever, from Punch & Judy and Maypole dancing to face painting and a music workshop.

At 10am on Saturday June 18th, several Morris 'sides' will parade into South Petherton's Market Square and launch the day's events with the traditional Ceremony of the Glove. Phil Bayliss, a committee member of the highly successful Petherton folk fair that ran for 19 years until 1997, will then perform the official opening and introduce Ian Baker, a member of Petherton Arts Trust, which owns and runs Petherton's renowned David Hall performing arts centre, who will be MC throughout the day.

There will be Morris dance demonstrations until 11am when the multi-instrumental Folk duo, Seth Bye & Katie Griffin, who blur the edges between Traditional music and contemporary styles, will open performances on the main stage in Market Square. Simultaneously, entertainment will begin in St Peter & St Paul's Church and its grounds, The David Hall, The Blake Hall, the yard at the infants' school and the back garden of Burnworthy House residential home, off Hele Lane. The last performance of the day will be the local band - Bad Dog, No Biscuit - in The Brewer's Arms pub at 9pm.

At 12noon, visitors will be invited to join in the traditional Clipping of the Church, which has proved to be a popular feature of Petherton Folk Fest. Music will be provided by the trumpet player, Sampson Wang.

As well as 10 different Morris 'sides', at least 20 different bands and soloists are featured in this year's programme. They include the four-piece high-energy Celtic rock band, The Dambusters; Kitty Macfarlane, the 22-year-old Somerset-based singer/songwriter and guitarist who reached the semi-finals of the BBC Radio 2 Young Folk Awards in 2015; The Roaring Trowmen, four hearty men from Bristol who sing sea shanties and songs of the salty deep; local singer Hannah Cumming, who has a passion for Traditional English Folk songs as well as Acoustic and Popular music; Bristol-based vocalist and lyricist Phil King, who has twice won the title of Roots Artist of the Year; Mitchell & Vincent, the Somerset/Devon Folk duo who play a lively mix of Traditional tunes which they have arranged for fiddle and classical guitar, and the local acoustic guitarist and singer, Bob Gallie, who formed the group, Bad Dog, No Biscuit, 15 years ago.

Throughout the day, food and drink will be available from a number of stalls in and around Market Square as well as in St Peter & St Paul's church, and there will also be craft stalls and other attractions for visitors of all ages.

The main stage is being sponsored by Probiotics International Limited (Protexin), based at Lopen Head, and South Petherton Parish Council has also made a welcome donation to the event. A further donation will come from Waitrose in Crewkerne, who included Petherton Folk Fest in its green token scheme during April.

Full details of the day's events can be found on the website: www.pethertonfolkfest.org.uk

Axminster's Community Street Party

CELEBRATING QUEEN ELIZABETH'S 90TH BIRTHDAY

Sat 11th June
From 2.15pm

Axminster is celebrating the Queen's 90th birthday this Saturday and organisers have promised something for everyone.

There will be a street party in Silver Street from 2.15 to 6pm. It will be open to all ages but is aimed at giving children a fun packed afternoon of activities - all free of charge! The party will be opened with a loyal toast proposed by the Deputy Lord Lieutenant of Devon, Tim Courtenay. There will also be entertainment on the Minster Green including Saxminster, Lindy Hop, Morris Dancers, Punch & Judy, ukuleles, kids' games and a bouncy castle.

Tables of eight at £10 are available to book now from the Conservative Club.

A wallhanging will be made to commemorate the day for everyone to 'put their stitch in', which will then be hung in the Heritage Centre. There will also be special floral displays in the Minster as part of the celebrations.

A competition for the best shop window display in the town will also be held, with shops hanging out flags, as well as a shop window quiz.

There have already been competitions in the three schools to make birthday cards for the Queen, and write letters and poems telling her all about Axminster. On the day there will be fancy dress contests for adults and children, plus a Royal table quiz. In the evening, a concert in the Minster at 7.30pm will see a fun musical celebration of Her Majesty's long life and interests with reference to her youth, her favourite songs & TV programmes, recognition of her wartime volunteering, her love of Scotland and her passion for horses. There will also be ceremonial music related to her role as monarch. Alternatively, there will be live music in the Con Club from 7pm.

On Sunday morning there will be a service in the Minster at 11am, with special prayers said for the Queen and the Royal family. In the afternoon there will be a Churches Together service, followed by tea, in the Guildhall.

In the build-up to the big weekend there will also be a whist drive at the Senior Citizens' Centre on Thursday (June 9th) at 7.30pm and bingo at the football club on Friday (June 10th). Call 07792 268561 for more information on the whist drive and 01297 32467 for the bingo.

Over 20 local organisations are contributing and involved one way or another, along with numerous local businesses who are supporting events, making the whole package a real community celebration.

Fantastic fun entertainment

AFTER a long and fraught journey from Northamptonshire on June 4th, Matthew Bason immediately took his seat at the unique Beer Wurlitzer and won the hearts of the audience.

By using all the percussion instruments to their full potential, he produced some remarkable music and his programme included a wide variety of popular tunes. He also played the piano and accordion and, with his powerful voice, delighted the audience with two beautiful songs. As well as his all-round musical excellence, Matthew is a fun person and deserves huge recognition for his lively shows.

Matthew was classically trained on the piano and began to teach himself the organ aged 12. He performs all around the UK and has toured in the USA, Canada, Australia and Europe. He is a popular guest organist at Beer and commented "the organ gets better and better and it is a great credit to the team who maintain and improve it and also the audience who show their support".

The next show will be on Saturday, July 9th, with Trevor Bolshaw, internationally acclaimed concert and broadcasting organist and President of the Friends of the Beer Wurlitzer. The shows are held at the Congregational Church, Fore Street, Beer, EX12 3JQ, starting at 2pm ending approx. 4.30pm. Admission is £7 on the door, children free, and includes interval refreshments. For further information phone 01297 24892 or visit www.beerwurlitzer.org.uk.

MAD MAY is over and what a month we've had! The crew and volunteers at the Beehive have been brilliant, helping to ensure the smooth running of some stonkingly successful events. Wonderful to have packed houses singing along at Police Dog Hogan and laughing like drains at Henning Wehn and Twelfth Night!

Thanks to Honiton Festival who programmed some fabulously exciting and diverse music events this year.

Now we launch into June and the rest of our Shakespeare celebration.

On Saturday, June 11th at 7.30pm we have our Wonderful Will evening, a celebration of his life and works. A lovely informal evening with some favourite scenes, sonnets and soliloquies performed by Drama students from Honiton Community College and Stockland Primary school, some surprising guest performers, fab, funny scenes from Honiton community theatre co, beautiful live music and singing from Cole Stacey and Alex Jackson and all interspersed with fascinating facts about the life of the Bard!

Bristol Old Vic Theatre School are touring their production of A midsummer Night's Dream to the Beehive on Friday, June 17th. Having heard great things about this show, we are really looking forward to this.

As a part of our festival at 2pm on June 22nd, Pat Perryman is going to give a 40 minute talk about the origin of lacemaking in Shakespeare's time to the present day with examples and a display. The event is free of charge with donations to Allhallows Museum.

The Branagh Live production of Romeo and Juliet is being shown on Thursday, July 7th at 7.15pm and is our first live streaming event. The show stars Derek Jacobi, Meera Syal, Lily James & Richard Madden.

Amongst all of these Shakespearean treats we also have some fabulous films programmed for you throughout June.

The Man who knew infinity (12A) is on this Friday, June 10th, which stars Dev Patel as the Mathematical genius Srinivasa Ramanujan, along with Toby Jones, Stephen Fry and Jeremy Irons.

Then we have the very eagerly awaited Jungle Book (PG) at 3pm and 7.30pm on Saturday 18th June.

The Nostalgic Cinema film for this month is Kind hearts and coronets at 2pm on Thursday, June 23rd followed by free tea and biscuits in the café bar.

On Friday, June 24th at 7.30pm there is a Discover Arts showing of "Leonardo Da Vinci: The Genius In Milan" which explores his work as never seen before, telling the story of the artist's world and the treasures he left us.

Finally on Saturday, June 25th there are 11am and 3pm showings of "The Angry Birds Movie" (U) followed by "Florence Foster Jenkins" (PG) at 7.30pm that evening. Look forward to seeing you!

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ILMINSTER ARTS CENTRE THIS JUNE

WITH THE countryside and gardens arguably looking at their best this month, now is a good time to celebrate the beauty of the natural world. Drawn from Nature, our first exhibition in June does just that, as it is a stunning a showcase by the patient and painstaking members of the South West Society of Botanical Artists. Featuring detailed content, skilful observation and closely observed colour, these images capture the fleeting beauty of flowers, leaves and fruit. Runs until Saturday, June 11th.

Ten talented West Country artists join forces for their exhibition, Another Dimension, which starts Monday, June 13th and runs until July 2nd. Not only will there be an intriguing variety of techniques and materials to enjoy – from textile collages to surrealist sculptures – but the breadth of the subject matter roams from Cornwall to Asia, and back to Somerset. Great fun!

On Friday, June 10th our jazz programme takes on an Italian flavour with a concert by Italy's top saxophonist, Tomasso Starace. Tomasso and his Quartet are highly regarded across Europe and their swinging and dynamic performance style have all the right ingredients to provide us with another memorable evening of modern music.

Darius Brubeck and his Quartet have played with Abigail Willis

to sold-out houses at festivals across the globe and we anticipate that their appearance at the Arts Centre on Friday, June 17th will continue the trend! Their irresistible '3 dimensional' programme includes original compositions, classic Brubeck hits and South African jazz but you will have to hurry if you want to get a ticket for this one!

We are delighted to be taking part in Ilminster's 1st Literary Festival, and are hosting three events that should be 'write' up your street, whatever your age. On Wednesday 1st, children's storyteller Tim Bates came to the Arts Centre to regale a young audience with tales about Animals with Attitude, while on Friday, June 3rd, we celebrated words, spoken and sung, with A Way with Words. Five West of England Writers joined us on Sunday, June 5th to talk about their work and inspiration, and answered questions.

Our three fabulous one day workshops this month are: Fabric Collage Book Covers on June 7th; Mixed Media Mosaics on June 10th; Crazy Patchwork on Friday, June 24th. Don't forget we are now inviting entries for the Ilminster Annual Open exhibition, which takes place in August. Entry forms are available online, or pick one up from the Arts Centre.

Music in the Garden

THE free 'Music in the Garden' events in the beautiful Courtyard Garden at the Old Courthouse, Church Street, Axminster are now under way. This year Axminster Arts are pleased to be able to host some new musicians. A group calling themselves Small Change: a saxophone duo, will be playing jazz, swing and chilled tunes next Saturday 11th June and on the following Saturday a group calling themselves Nine Pound Catfish will be playing ragtime blues, hokum and old country music. The remaining programme of the Music in the Garden events is printed here. These free events are taking place each Saturday morning throughout June until September inclusive. These events have become a highlight of the summer for many local residents.

A visit to Axminster is incomplete without going to the historic grade II listed Old Courthouse building, which includes two old police cells and a beautiful south-facing walled garden. The Arts Café is open from Monday to Saturday 9.00am - 4.00pm where appetizing breakfasts, lunches and afternoon teas, comprising delicious home-made cakes. Dogs on leads are welcome in the courtyard garden, which also provides a safe enclosed space for young children and in addition there is plenty of space for cyclists' bikes.

Eliza and Martin Carthy to headline Lyme Folk Weekend

Famous folk father and daughter duo to close out Sunday evening

ONCE AGAIN Lyme Folk Weekend is bringing the very best in British folk music and dancing to the town this September.

Specially reduced Early Bird weekend tickets are already on sale for the festival, now in its fourth year and firmly established as one of the highlights of the summer in Lyme Regis, and this time round will feature more than 40 acts at seven venues around the town. A limited number of Early Bird passes, which will allow entry to ALL the events at Lyme Folk Weekend, are available for just £45 until July 1st.

Making her first appearance at the festival is Eliza Carthy, arguably the biggest star on the British folk scene, who will be headlining the Sunday night finale show at the Marine Theatre along with her father, folk legend Martin Carthy. Martin and Eliza will be performing songs from their critically acclaimed album, The Moral of the Elephant, the first recording they have made as a duo.

Also gracing the Marine Theatre stage for Lyme Folk Weekend will be John Kirkpatrick, another legendary figure from British folk.

And if you're in the mood for joining in, John will be hosting singing and playing sessions in the Ship Inn, along with brilliant Lyme Folk patron Jim Causley.

As a bonus, John Kirkpatrick will also be appearing at a special show in a new pop-up venue in Langmoor Gardens, featuring music from the hit BBC programme Victorian Farm, for which he was musical director.

As usual there will be music, dancing, poetry and other entertainment all weekend, all around the town, including the amazing Steampunk Morris, the brilliant Ninebarrow and the hilarious Uke-Men League.

And don't forget entertainment all day on the seafront, live music each night at the Pilot Boat, open mic night at the Galley Cafe, the Saturday night barn dance in the new Town Mill Brewery beer tent, and much, much more.

■ Lyme Folk Weekend takes place from Friday, September 9th to Sunday, September 11th. For full details of all the acts on show and to grab your Early Bird weekend passes, visit www.lymefolk.com

Folk singer Causley to play the Whimble Victory Hall

SON OF Whimble Jim Causley celebrates over a decade (12 years actually!) as an acclaimed solo artist and performer with a brand new studio album Forgotten Kingdom, released by Hands On Music this year, and a supporting tour. The album is his first album of entirely self-penned material. Forgotten Kingdom is a broad collection of songs inspired by Causley's native Devon, mixing ancient history with the songwriter's own personal history and experience of the world. Themes range from the Saxon invasion of the area, the Celtic diaspora, to very personal explorations of love and geographical identity. This is certainly Causley's most musically ambitious work to date.

Remarkably, given the prominence of his native West County in his music, Forgotten Kingdom is the first occasion Jim has actually recorded an album in his home county of Devon! Working alongside award-winning co-producer Mark Tucker, this was a project Jim has long dreamt of creating. For this decenary celebration, Jim has invited some of his closest musical friends to join him as guests. Among them are long-time collaborators James Dumbelton, Nick Wyke & Becki Driscoll, all three members of Show of Hands on whose label (Hands On Music) the album is being released; contemporaries Seth Lakeman, Phillip Henry & Hannah Martin, Miranda Sykes & Rex Preston, Kathryn Roberts, Lukas Drinkwater and Jackie Oates.

During the past decade Causley has been nominated for no less than five BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards, won the Spiral Earth Singer of the Year award in 2014, presented his own folk music show on BBC Radio Devon and in 2015 he worked with BBC TV historian Dr Sam Willis to create the music for his show 'Highwaymen, Outlaws and Villains' and was invited to perform his song 'Pride of the Moor' on BBC TV's Countryfile - Dartmoor Special.

Alongside the new material from Forgotten Kingdom, Jim will revisit old songs from across his back catalogue (possibly even the odd wassail song!) giving a well-rounded and thoroughly entertaining night of shade and light.

Jim will be playing a full set at The Victory Hall, Whimble on Sunday, July 3rd 2016, tickets are £8 each and available from www.onawhimpromotions.co.uk or ring 07548 278 276. Doors open at 6.30 for a 7.30pm start, there is a licensed bar plus limited free parking.

5 TIPS FOR MAKING YOUR HOME MORE SELLABLE

1. IF your kitchen units have seen better days and

by Julia Gray, Press Association

you don't want to go to the expense and hassle of replacing them, give them an instant makeover by changing the doors and drawer fronts. This will transform the kitchen and needn't be too expensive - B&Q (www.diy.com), for example, has a big range of affordable unit doors and drawer fronts, many available in store. If the units aren't standard sizes or you want a more affordable option, simply paint the doors and drawer fronts to give them a new look, or glue thin MDF to the front to change the style and then paint them.

2. Cluttered kitchens aren't a selling point. If lack of worktop space is a problem, think about how you can make what you have go further. Use microwave brackets to get your microwave off the worktop, or fit nice wall shelves to declutter the worktop. In a small kitchen, a hinged wall-hung table will give you more work space and somewhere to eat. If your kitchen has highish ceilings and you're happy to change the wall units, tall ones provide extra storage. Failing that, stack attractive baskets or boxes on top of the existing wall units to make the most of the space, but don't store anything heavy up there.

3. Somewhere to shower is essential for most buyers and if your bathroom doesn't have a shower, it may be letting you down. There's an inexpensive answer - replace the bath taps with bath-shower mixer taps, which are bath taps with a shower hose and head. As long as your bath is suitable for showering and the water pressure is good, all you need is a bath screen or shower curtain, plus a riser rail on the wall to hold the shower head, and you have a shower that should add value and make your home more sellable.

4. Grubby tile grout makes kitchens and bathrooms look grotty. White grout is easily marked by cooking splashes, shampoo, shower gel and the like, but there is a quick and easily solution - steam-clean it. Use a steam cleaner and your grout should soon look like new. If the power of steam doesn't work, or work sufficiently, you can apply grout paint to re-whiten the grout. In the worse cases, consider raking out the stained grout and applying more, but this is a big job and you may chip the tiles in the process.

5. If you're selling your home, giving tired walls and woodwork a fresh coat or two of paint will make a big difference to any room but especially the kitchen and bathroom because they're key rooms. Make sure you use a scrubable paint so it stays looking good - special kitchen and bathroom emulsions are designed to withstand things like mould and steam and are available in all sorts of colours these days.

HOW-TO TIP

GROUTING tiles can be tricky because if you leave the excess grout on too long, it can be hard to remove, but if you wipe the tiles clean too soon after grouting, you can remove more than just the excess. Wait a few minutes after you've applied the grout and then wipe off the excess diagonally to minimise dislodging the grout from between the tiles. Use an abrasive sponge (make sure it's white if you're using pale grout) so you can scrub off the excess easily, and use the back of the sponge (the non-abrasive side) to smooth over the grout lines as you go, which saves having to go over them with a grout-finishing tool afterwards. Once dry, the tiles will be smeary from grouting - unless the grout is particularly hard, the easiest way to clean this off is by buffing with a dry cloth.

SOUTH WEST ROOFING

THE FLAT ROOFING SPECIALISTS

At South West Roofing we provide a high quality service, offering high performance Felt and GRP Fibreglass roofs with over 30 years of experience. Based in Crewkerne, and covering the Somerset, Dorset and Devon area, we aim to provide a friendly, efficient and competitively priced service, whether it be a small repair, or a large re-roofing job. Unlike other roofing companies, our focus is based solely on flat roofs, ranging from porches, garages and extensions, right the way up to schools and factory roofs. We enjoy a good working relationship with many local builders, who repeatedly use our services for their flat roof projects, and pride ourselves on the good name we have worked so hard to build up and maintain. We are more than happy to come out and advise you on your roof options, and give free estimates on any sized job. Our aim is to fix your flat roof issues to the highest standard, and largely rely on our customers to recommend us for future work.

To arrange a free estimate or for advise on your flat roof, please call us on: 01460 77789, or E.mail: lloydoble@hotmail.com

Ford launches sporty new ST-Line Fiesta and Focus models

FORD today announced a new ST-Line model range for Europe, featuring vehicles with sporty styling inspired by Ford Performance and offering a range of powerful and efficient EcoBoost petrol and TDCi diesel powertrains.

ST-Line launches with the Fiesta ST-Line – priced from £15,645 – and Focus ST-Line – priced from £20,595 – both available to order now.

Delivering bold exterior and interior designs inspired by Ford's acclaimed Fiesta ST and Focus ST performance models, the new Focus ST-Line and Fiesta ST-Line are designed for customers who aspire to the sporty image of Ford's ST models – but do not require the full performance delivered by optimised ST engines and chassis with sports technologies.

Both Focus ST-Line and Fiesta ST-Line are offered with a range of powerful engines including Ford's multi-award-winning 1.0-litre EcoBoost petrol engine; sport suspension and body styling; unique alloy wheel designs; and sport seats, sport steering wheel and alloy pedals for the interior.

"With our new ST-Line range even more customers can experience sporty style and driving dynamics inspired by our most exciting Ford Performance line-up ever, that includes models such as the Focus RS, new Fiesta ST200 and Ford GT supercar" said Roelant de Waard, vice president, Marketing, Sales & Service, Ford of Europe. "This year we expect to sell 40,000 performance cars in Europe, a 50 per cent increase compared with 2015, which in turn saw performance car sales rise by 61 per cent compared with 2014."

Sporty styling

Available in 3-door and 5-door bodystyles, the Fiesta ST-Line is a sporty new addition to the UK's best-selling car. The 5-door and estate Focus ST-Line models further enhance the appeal of the popular family car.

UPOTTERY 1st XI v HONITON 1st XI
SKIPPER Oli Cave took his Honiton team to near neighbours Upottery looking for a response from his players after a poor showing the week before, and that is exactly what he got.

Batting first once again, everyone chipped in as they posted 302 for 8. The biggest contributions came from Rob Ingram 68no, Brian Cann 68, Andy Canniford 36 and Mike Docherty 38.

In reply the home side never looked like chasing down the total as Honiton's bowlers kept things in control. Ben Kidson 4 for 50 and Phil Tansley 2 for 20 did the bulk of the damage as the home side were all out for 167 (J.Mitcham 31, O.Rice 31). Honiton (20 points) beat Upottery (7) by 135 runs.

HONITON 2nd XI vs CLYST HYDON 2nds

BATTING first Honiton got off to a good start with early runs from the skipper Andrew Lapping 13 and Pete Beighton 19.

Clyst Hydon's bowlers served up a lot of wides or unplayable deliveries and the home side struggled to get going as they were all out for just 140.

Ashley Munt scored 26 and there were late runs from I Kelly 19no with 42 extras totalling 30.

The visitors lost a few early wickets but appeared in control with Sri Lankan R Batagodage scoring a fine 59. But once he was out Honiton's bowlers and fielders worked wonders to skittle the visitors out for 113.

Andy Brinsford 5 for 24 was the star with Corey Lapping 2 for 27 and Ian Kelly 2 for 18 also doing their bit in the win. Honiton (18 points) beat Clyst Hydon (seven) by 27 runs.

With the Cidernmen

by Howard Larcombe
NatWest Blast T20 Somerset v Essex
A MAN-OF-THE-MATCH performance from Chris Gayle on Friday evening was the highlight as Somerset put two abject performances behind them to record their first win in this season's competition.

Somerset skipper Jim Allenby invited the visitors to bat first in front of a sell-out 7,000 crowd basking in the early June sunshine.

The Essex Eagles innings was a largely low-key affair against the Cidernmen's attack who put in a good shift with Jamie Overton (2-45) and Lewis Gregory (2-25) the most successful while leg-spinner Max Waller only went for 17 off his three overs and picked up the wicket of dangerous Ravi Bopara for 8.

Ryan ten Doeschate top scored with 47 off 34 balls but the eventual total of 178 for 7 never looked to be enough...if the Cidernmen's big guns fired.

Gayle and Allenby set out on the chase in circumspect fashion until Gayle went after David Masters in the fifth over with the giant West Indian clubbing three sixes and the beleaguered spinner going for 28.

He eventually fell at 75 misting a drive off Pakistani paceman Wahib Riaz to mid-off but his 49 off 23 balls had laid the foundation for victory.

Allenby was joined by Pete Trego and they added 47 before the Wizard of Weston fell for an impressive 34 off 20 with one maximum.

One disappointment was the early dismissal of 39-year-old Sri Lankan legend Mahela Jayawardene who was bowled by Masters for six after playing one exquisite scoop over fine leg.

But any Eagles hopes of a late swoop to victory were ended when Lewis Gregory smacked two 4s and a six off the unfortunate Masters who finished with 1 for 54 off his four overs.

Allenby struck the winning runs as he and Gregory forged an unbroken fourth wicket stand of 52 and the Cidernmen were home with 13 balls to spare.

Royal London One-day Cup (50ov) SOMERSET v GLOUCESTERSHIRE

(Sunday, June 5th)
TWICE in the space 10 days a last wicket stand has come to the aid of Somerset and clinched an incredible win when all seemed lost.

Skipper Jim Allenby once again called correctly and inserted the visitors in tricky batting conditions.

Craig Overton clean bowled the dangerous Michael Klinger for just six and the hosts were in control in the 16th over with Gloucestershire struggling on 94 for 4.

But a superb 16-boundary 100 from left

ROUND Four, and the mid way point of the Dunkswell Kart Racing Club's 2016 season, was held recently at the Mansell Raceway.

First up were the Cadets, and Charlie Knight was again untroubled with a lights to flag finish but the action was going on behind him as Ollie Tyler battled it out with Chris Simpson initially, before Ollie Makepeace cut through the field and was on Tyler's tail.

Tyler, worked hard and despite being pushed back to third place used his extensive experience to get past Makepeace on the final lap to follow Knight home with Makepeace trailing in behind in third.

In the Minimax class, It was Pryer who had an untroubled run whilst behind him, Adams and Connor Merrifield battled it out for second place. This allowed Shay Keough the chance to get in on the action but as Adams put some space between himself and this new fight, Merrifield used his experience to push Keough back into fourth.

There was some close racing amongst the top three in The Junior Max final as Wilson-Brown, Holden and Hepworth kept each other honest. On the penultimate lap, Holden went for a move getting ahead on Wilson-Brown but the end result was both Holden and Hepworth both coming off worse with Hepworth dropping to the back of the field whilst Holden received a 10 second penalty for a dislodged nosecone.

The net result saw Martial Radford promoted to second and Brad Horsnell to third.

The Senior Max final was the best race of the day as pole man Taylor Adams was quickly relegated to third as Dan Gould and Ash Reeves got ahead.

Reeves squeezed past Gould on lap 7 to take an emotional first seniors win. However, an administration error saw him denied the victory and gifting the win to Gould. Merrick Gigg was elevated to second and Adams, rounded off a good day with third.

In the TKM class, Matt Harris continued his dominance to take the win, whilst in the 177 class it was Ryan Edgecumbe who held off a determined Carl Adey to cement his position as the current class championship leader.

Last up were the Gearbox boys and Ross Allen was showing Ash Lewis a clean set of wheels as he made it four from four with Lewis managing to keep him honest crossing the line 2.2 seconds behind the team supported Allen.

Once again the club put on a well organised meeting and thanks must go to the MSA officials and the Marshal Team. It was also great to see an increase in the number of spectators turning out.

Diary date: The FP4 class will be racing at Dunkswell on Sunday, 26th.

weekend after making a stunning debut in the British trials race the previous weekend in the Lake District.

In his first mountain race Smith, who trains with Axe Valley Runners and is also a member of the N1 Tri Club covering East Devon, finished an amazing fourth in the under 20 men's race to secure his place in the team and his first GB vest.

"I just did not expect to do that well in the trials race," said Smith.

"When I got up there and saw the sort of runners I was up against, people who run all the time in the mountains and fells, I knew it was going to be very difficult.

"But I kept on moving through and on the last downhill I knew I had a chance of winning my first GB vest and I threw myself down it.

"It will be awesome to run for Great Britain for the first time especially in Olympics year."

It was Smith's coach Kirk Salmon who suggested Smith give the event a try and the family made a weekend of it to make the trip – which included a 10-slog through heavy traffic to reach the Lake District.

Smith found himself up against experienced fell runners and didn't even have specialist shoes instead relying on his normal road running shoes to carry him through.

"Wherever I run around here is hilly so that helps," added Smith, who won the Grizzly Cub race earlier this year.

"I also swim and cycle for triathlon and that has helped build up my leg muscles. It was still very tough but I really enjoyed it and I am just so please to have done so well and to win my first GB vest."

Salmon was full of praise for Smith and reckons he may have even created a little slice of Devon athletics history.

"I can't recall anyone from Devon before who has gone up to the fells and won a place in the British team for a major championships like this," said Salmon.

Big win for Axe Cliff seniors in derby clash

HONITON with John Pawley
THE Spring Bank Holiday competition started a very good week for Peter Clarke.

Firstly, he partnered his wife Heather to win the Treble Six competition. This is an annual mixed Stableford challenge where the men play off the yellow tees, and the ladies off the reds.

The first six holes are played as a better ball, with 9/10th handicap.

Holes 7-12 are played as Greensomes, on half combined handicaps, from the Ladies card and the last six holes are played as foursomes, off half the combined handicap, again off the Ladies card.

Ladies

THE Medal Trophy is open to all ladies who have won in medal competitions throughout the year, much like the Masters.

Players not in that category could play as a normal medal round.

The Trophy itself was won by Patricia Swindell with a net 67. Jackie Seager came second on 74 – with the same order for the Silver division normal medal competition. Bronze One was won by Lesley Farley with 74 and Cathy Uttley second with 77 on count-back from Liz Rogers.

Bronze Two winner was Rosemary Whitely with a net 80 followed by Linda McLaughlin with 81 on count-back from Sheila Palmer.

The nine-hole Stableford was won by Margaret Black with 13 points.

COUNTY ACTION

ON Thursday Honiton GC was the chosen venue for this year's SWCGA U14/U16 Championship.

With Honiton player Ben Phillips on the Devon team we had our own special interest.

The competition was for teams of nine players from Cornwall, Devon, Somerset, Dorset, Gloucestershire and Wiltshire.

The teams were made up of three players under 14 years old and six under 16 years old – all playing off the white tees.

It proved to be a good day for golf with sunny though blustery conditions for the 54 young men competing for a variety of trophies, and one team trophy.

The overall winner, with the lowest score over the 18 holes, and Champion of the SWCGA holding the Cotswold Ram Trophy with a score of 72, was James Cooper from Wiltshire.

The winner of the Ray Lawford Trophy with the lowest gross score of the under 14 group was James Reed of Devon with 75 and the winner of the Ian Clark Trophy for the lowest net score in the under 14s was Alex Johnston of Dorset with a score of 69 – the same as his club partner Samuel Trott.

The Inter Counties team Trophy was won by Wiltshire with Dorset second and Devon third.

Seniors

FOLLOWING a poor result at Axe Cliff the day before, where the seniors lost in their friendly match by 5½-½, there was a good turnout of 60 players last Friday for the annual Anniversary Salver competition – a better ball competition where teams are drawn pairs.

The resultant scores were unusually evenly-matched with seven pairs on 40 points, where the count-back rules had to come into consideration.

Not for David Hughes & Bill Phillips, who were the last players to complete their round and romped home with an impressive 45 points. Jim Wallis & Mike Watts were second with 42 ahead on count-back from Tony Williams & Peter Clarke.

Max Pipe & Colin Hughes claimed fourth place with 40 and David Morris & Bob Cockett were fifth with the same score.

There were four 2s; Peter Clarke, Bob Underwood and Max Pipe on the second with Mike Kent on the fourth – each winning 10 balls.

Eclectic

RUNNING through the winter the Seniors hold an Eclectic competition for the Ken Beake Shield.

Fifty players signed up to record their best score at each individual hole over the nine rounds possible this year.

This year Seniors' Captain Alan Pollock presented Peter Clarke with the Shield, his score of 59.5 proving unbeatable.

Next was Andy Sharland with 60.0, Alan Devenny with 60.5, Steve Blundell with 60.5, Mike Watts with 62.0 and Bill Eaton with 62.5.

Captains Charity

CAPTAIN Julian Phillips hosted his Charity Open Day at the club on Saturday, sponsored by Westerly BMW of Exeter.

Julian's charity for this year, the Devon Freewheelers will benefit when all the monies raised at the event which attracted a strong field of ladies and youths, as well as the long hitting brigade.

Grateful thanks go to the volunteers from the 'Freewheelers' who provided players with some much needed sustenance with a BBQ at the Half Way House.

A total of 128 Players participated with a good mix of both members and visiting players.

The runaway winners, with an incredible 50 points, were the pairing of Joan Smith and the very in-form Jason Lovering. They also collected the Mary Goddard Shield for the highest placed Honiton Pair.

HONITON RC with Judy Davey

ON Sunday, two Honiton RC members travelled up to the small town of Fairford, Gloucestershire to compete in the Fairford 10K.

Result; 1st Mike King, Bernie Skeels & Alan Keenan 74 points, 2nd Jerry Stephens, Sid Forbes & Sid Crisp (72), 3rd Ron Sutherland, Mike Mosser & Gordon Braham 72.

A win, a half, and a loss in the first three games made for a close encounter, but three wins in the last three games by the Saints team gave them a fine victory by 41/2 games to 11/2.

Results: Nick Hill & Bob Hollingsworth won 2&1, Roger Stone & John McOmish halved, Chris Gingle & Robin Flower lost 4&3, Barrie Heath & Mike Dawson won 2&1, Keith Potter & Keith Branchflower won 3&1, Richard Forster & Bill Hilson won 3&1.

Dixon lands notable double at Honiton FC

THERE was plenty to celebrate at the recent Honiton Town Football Club presentation evening.

'The Hippos' first team ran eventful Champions Topham Town and runners-up Newtown close before finishing in an excellent third position on their return to the Devon & Exeter League Premier Division.

The team recovered from a three game losing slump in September to put together a superb 15-game unbeaten run that stretched from early October through to Mid-April and resulted in them in being the league's joint top goal scorers with 83.

Midfielder Joe Dixon stole the headlines as he collected both the Manager's Player and Players' Player awards.

The Reserve team also did well finishing third in Division Four and must now await to see if this will be good enough to earn them a promotion spot.

The club's newly formed third team finished mid-table as they found their feet in the D & E Division Nine.

Award winners, third team: Top Scorer - Matt Ayres, Goal of the Season - Ryan Pike, Goal of the Season - Matt Ayres, Young Player - Ashley Munt, Most Improved - Cody Knight, Players' Player - Rowan Symonds, Manager's Player - Chris Williams.

Reserves: Top scorer - Blake Freemantle, Goal of the Season - Kris Roper, Young Player - Aaron Pearce, Most Improved - Matt Urquhart, Players' Player - Blake Freemantle, Manager's Player - Dom Carswell.

First team: Top scorer - Joe Mulhall, Goal of the Season - Tim Genders, Young Player - Rowan Symonds, Most Improved - Tom Perryman, Players' Player - Joe Dixon, Manager's Player - Joe Dixon, Club Crock of the Year - Jordan Stickland

The club wished to say a big 'Thank you' to sponsors Rich Ayres and Ben Welch from Jewsons, John Capon at Otter Windows, Richard Spiller from Red Homes and Aaron Baldry from AMB Roofing.

Elsewhere, AXMINSTER TOWN scooped the Division One (east) Ground of the Year award at last week's South-West Peninsula League presentation evening.

SIDMOUTH TOWN were runners-up. The Vikings did however finish top of the Division's Fair Play League and were awarded £300 for their efforts.
